The intelligence from Mobile is of an exciting and interesting character. If it should invose true, the access, at New Orleans in 1866 may be re-exacted with at least one of the place pal actors in a leading part. The old iron dates doe, Commodore Farragut is among its Mobilians with six or eight iron-clads.—At last accounts he had exceedfully passed Forta Mergan and Gaines, which have hith-site been considered the main sea defenses of Mobile, and had been engaged for three thys in bombarding the upper defenses of the city. General Gordon Granger, with a land lone, will co-operate with the admiral, and here was an expectation that the city would have to surrender at an early day. Two more four-clads had left New Orleans to Join the Admiral's facet.

Passing Laws To TAKE IMMEDIATE EFFECT. The impolicy of passing important laws to take immediate effect is shown in results growing out of the change is the rate of income tax. Disburning officers, in distant sections, and some even in this city were not aware that the new law went into effect with the beginning of July, and pay rolls for that anonth are coming on with the old rate of 8 per cent, deducted and withheld. More secounts must be suspended, and doubtless many disbursing officers will suffer considerable loss by reason of the impossibility of collecting the additional 3 per cent. In numerous cases.

Sr. Paci, Saturday, August 6, 1964.
The 5th regiment of Minnesofa volunteers, which has been home on furiough for a month, left to-day for the front two hundred and fifty strong.

Recruiting has progressed better for the past two or three days as the harvest is nearly over, and the high bounties paid are still urging men to volunteer.

The news from harvest is encouraging. The yield of small grain is nearly an average crop, white corn never looked finer.
